

— LEGENDS · NO. 11

O REI. THE KING.

Pelé · Brazil · 1940 to 2022.

A 6-part breakdown

SWIPE ▶▶▶▶

0101 / 06

A TEENAGER AT THE WORLD CUP.

In 1958, aged just seventeen, he scored twice in the final and announced himself to the world. A boy among men, and the best of them.

0202 / 06

| THREE WORLD CUPS.

1958, 1962 and 1970. He remains the only player to win the trophy three times.

Unmatched, and likely forever.

0303 / 06

SANTOS, AND GOALS BY THE HUNDRED.

For two decades he made Santos the most famous club on earth, scoring at a rate almost too big to count. A career without equal.

0404 / 06

| 1970, THE PERFECT TEAM.

The Brazil side many call the greatest ever, with Pelé at its heart. The dummy, the lob, the pass to Carlos Alberto. Football as joy.

0505 / 06

THE GAME'S FIRST GLOBAL ICON.

He carried the sport to places it had never reached and gave it a name that meant beauty. He made the world watch.

0606 / 06

| 0 REI.

Pelé died in 2022, aged 82. The King, simply.
Long live the King.

— THE TAKEAWAY

WHO COMES NEXT?

Legends No. 11. Follow @thearchv_ca for No. 12 — one football great, fully told.