THE FORWARD WHO LOVED THE GAME.

Diogo Jota · Portugal · 1996 to 2025.

A 6-part breakdown

0101 / 06

| HE ARRIVED QUIETLY.

Born in Porto, he came up through Paços de Ferreira and Atlético Madrid before Wolves gave him the stage in England. He scored the goals that carried them up and kept them up. The big move was always coming.

0202 / 06

| ANFIELD SUITED HIM.

Liverpool signed him in 2020 and he repaid them fast, around 65 goals in roughly 185 games. He had the knack of arriving in the box a half-second before anyone else. A finisher, plain and simple.

0303 / 06

| HE WON THE LOT.

A Premier League title. An FA Cup. Two League Cups. With Portugal, a Nations League winner and 14 goals in 49 caps.
Medals earned, not gifted.

0404 / 06

THE MOVEMENT SET HIM APART.

He did not need many touches. A clever run, a first-time finish, gone. Defenders knew it was coming and still could not stop it. Sharp where it counted.

0505 / 06

| THE MAN BEHIND THE PLAYER.

Teammates talked about how humble he was, how easy to be around. He loved his gaming, his family, and days out of the spotlight. Days before he died he had married Rute, his partner since their teens. A footballer, and a husband and father first.

0606 / 06

| GONE TOO SOON.

On 3 July 2025, Diogo and his younger brother André Silva died in a car crash in Spain. He was 28. The game stopped to mourn one of its own. Rest easy, Diogo.
