THE METRONOME WHO TOOK CANADA BACK.

Atiba Hutchinson · Canada · 104 caps, a national record.

A 6-part breakdown

SWIPE ►►►

0101 / 06

A LONG ROAD FROM BRAMPTON.

He debuted for Canada in 2003 as a 19-year-old. From there came Sweden, then Copenhagen in Denmark and PSV in the Netherlands, where he was named the Danish league's player of the year. He earned his stage the slow way.

0202 / 06

| THE MIDFIELD METRONOME.

He did not chase the highlight. He set the tempo, won the ball, kept it moving, made the players around him better. Watch closely and you saw a midfielder who controlled games without shouting about it. Quiet, and essential.

0303 / 06

| A BEŞİKTAŞ LEGEND.

He spent a decade in Istanbul and captained the club, winning three Süper Lig titles. Beşiktaş fans revered him. Adopted, and adored.

0404 / 06

| CANADA'S MOST-CAPPED MAN.

He retired having played 104 times for Canada, a men's record. Two decades in the shirt, through the lean years and the breakthrough. He stayed the whole way.

0505 / 06

THE CAPTAIN WHO ENDED THE WAIT.

In 2022 he led Canada to their first men's World Cup in 36 years. After a generation of near-misses, the armband belonged to the man who had carried the team longest. The moment he had earned.

0606 / 06

| HE HANDED IT ON.

He retired in 2023, his last cap a 104th off the bench. The team he took to Qatar now co-hosts the World Cup in 2026. He built the bridge the next ones will cross.
