PREGAME: CANADA VS BOSNIA — THE FIRST ON CANADIAN SOIL

Two record scorers, forty years apart — and Canada's first home World Cup match.

A 7-part breakdown

0101 / 07

CANADA V BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA.

Group B · BMO Field, Toronto · Friday June 12
· 3:00 PM ET. The first men's World Cup match ever played on Canadian soil.

0202 / 07

| A FIRST MEETING.

These two have never played each other — not once. No history to lean on, no scores to settle. Everything written here starts today.

0303 / 07

CANADA ARE STILL CHASING ONE.

Six World Cup matches across 1986 and 2022. Six defeats. No wins. Davies' header against Croatia in 2022 broke a 36-year goalless duck — the points never came. Now the chance arrives at home.

0404 / 07

| THE HOME RECORD-BREAKER.

Jonathan David — 39 goals in 75 caps, Canada's all-time leading scorer, now at Juventus. Cold in front of goal enough to earn the name 'the Iceman.' He carries the line, and the expectation.

0505 / 07

THE MAN WHO REFUSES TO LEAVE.

Edin Dzeko — 40 years old, Bosnia's all-time top scorer and most-capped player, 73 goals in 148 games. He scored at the 2014 World Cup. Twelve years later, he's still the one they look to.

0606 / 07

BOSNIA KNOCKED OUT ITALY TO BE HERE.

Their second World Cup ever, first since 2014 — earned by beating four-time champions Italy on penalties in Zenica. Unbeaten in eight, like Canada. Nobody here is the makeweight.
