

— LEGENDS · NO. 07

THE QUIET MAN WHO SCORED THE GOAL.

Andrés Iniesta · Spain · the 116th minute, 2010.

A 6-part breakdown

SWIPE ►►►

0101 / 06

| MADE AT LA MASIA.

He joined Barcelona's academy as a boy and barely left for two decades. One club, one idea, learned from the inside. Barcelona to the core.

0202 / 06

| THE ENGINE OF A GOLDEN AGE.

Nine La Ligas, four Champions Leagues, six Copas del Rey. With Xavi beside him he made the best midfield club football has seen.

Control as an art form.

0303 / 06

| THE 116TH MINUTE.

On 11 July 2010, the World Cup final goalless and creeping to penalties, Iniesta arrived to volley Spain's winner against the Netherlands. The latest goal ever to decide a final. One swing, a nation's first star.

0404 / 06

| BACK TO BACK TO BACK.

Euro 2008, World Cup 2010, Euro 2012.

Spain's dynasty, and Iniesta at the heart of all three. The quiet metronome of a generation.

0505 / 06

| LOYALTY, THEN A NEW ROAD.

He gave Barcelona until 2018, then carried the game to Japan with Vissel Kobe and on to the UAE, before retiring in 2024. He took the idea with him.

0606 / 06

NEVER THE LOUDEST, ALWAYS THE ANSWER.

No theatrics, no noise. Just the player you wanted on the ball when everything was on the line. Greatness, understated.

— THE TAKEAWAY

WHO COMES NEXT?

Legends No. 07. Follow @thearchv_ca for No. 08 — one football great, fully told.