

— LEGENDS · NO. 08

ENGLAND'S GENTLEMAN, UNITED'S HEART.

Sir Bobby Charlton · England · 1937 to 2023.

A 6-part breakdown

SWIPE ►►►

0101 / 06

| HE SURVIVED MUNICH.

In 1958 the air crash that killed eight of his Manchester United teammates nearly took him too. He came back and carried the club through its darkest decade. Grief turned into purpose.

0202 / 06

| THE SHOT THAT DEFINED HIM.

A thunderous strike from distance, off either foot, almost no backlift. Defenders backed off and still could not stop it. One of the great strikers of a ball.

0303 / 06

| 1966, ON HOME SOIL.

He was the engine of England's only World Cup win and scored twice in the semi-final against Portugal. That year he was named the best player in the world. A nation's one shining trophy.

0404 / 06

| EUROPEAN CUP, TEN YEARS ON.

In 1968 he captained United to become the first English club to win the European Cup, a decade after Munich, and scored twice in the final. The circle closed at Wembley.

0505 / 06

THE STANDARD, ON AND OFF THE PITCH.

A Ballon d'Or winner, United's record scorer for decades, and a model of dignity his whole life. Greatness with grace.

0606 / 06

| SIR BOBBY.

Bobby Charlton died in 2023, aged 86. English football may never produce a more beloved figure. Rest well, Sir Bobby.
