PREGAME: MEXICO VS SOUTH AFRICA — THE OPENER

16 years after Tshabalala, the rematch opens a World Cup.

A 7-part breakdown

0101 / 07

| MEXICO V SOUTH AFRICA.

Group A · Estadio Azteca, Mexico City ·
Thursday June 11 · 3:00 PM ET. The Azteca becomes the first stadium ever to open three World Cups — 1970, 1986, 2026.

0202 / 07

| WE HAVE BEEN HERE BEFORE.

11 June 2010, Soccer City. Tshabalala's screamer opened Africa's first World Cup. Rafael Márquez answered late. 1-1. Sixteen years to the day, the fixture flips continents.

0303 / 07

| THE FORM GAP.

Mexico arrive unbeaten in eight in 2026 — Ghana 2-0, Australia 1-0, Serbia 5-1. South Africa's send-off: 0-0 with Nicaragua, 1-1 with Jamaica. On paper, one-way. Openers don't read paper.

0404 / 07

| THE HOME STAR.

Hirving 'Chucky' Lozano. Pace, flair, and a point to prove — back at Club América, now leading the line for a home World Cup. He scored against the champions in 2018. The Azteca expects.

0505 / 07

| THE WALL IN HIS WAY.

Ronwen Williams — captain, goalkeeper, the man who saved four penalties in one AFCON shootout. If Bafana Bafana survive the opening storm, it starts with him.

0606 / 07

| HOSTS DON'T LOSE OPENERS.

No host nation has ever lost a World Cup opening match. Mexico have opened at home twice before — and never lost at the Azteca in a World Cup. Streaks exist to be tested.

0707 / 07

| YOUR CALL. SAVE THIS BRIEF.

Mexico's pace against the AFCON's best keeper, 16 years of history, and a stadium built for opening nights. Drop your scoreline in the comments — we archive the verdicts at full time.
