THE LITTLE PEA WHO NEVER STOPPED SCORING.

Javier Hernández · Mexico · 52 goals, a national record.

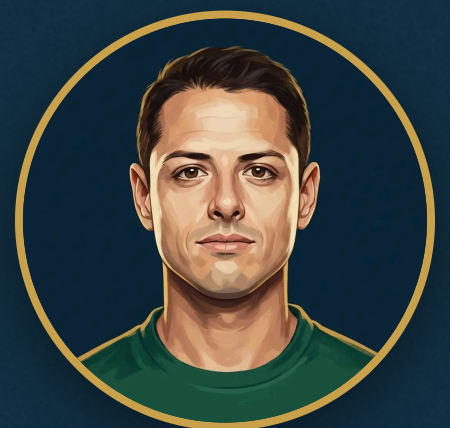

A 6-part breakdown

0101 / 06

| BORN INTO IT.

His grandfather played for Mexico at the 1954 World Cup. His father played at the 1986 one. The nickname came from his dad, 'El Chicharo', the Pea, for his green eyes. The son became 'Chicharito', the Little Pea. Football ran in the family.

0202 / 06

| CHIVAS TO OLD TRAFFORD.

He broke through at his boyhood club Guadalajara, then in 2010 Manchester United took a chance on him. He scored on his Premier League debut and never looked back, winning the title in his first season. A poacher who belonged at the top.

0303 / 06

| A CAREER ACROSS EUROPE.

After United came Real Madrid, then Bayer Leverkusen, West Ham and Sevilla. He scored everywhere he went. Different leagues, same instinct.

0404 / 06

| THE RECORD THAT DEFINES HIM.

On 28 May 2017 he scored his 47th international goal against Croatia, passing Jared Borgetti. He finished on 52, the most in Mexico's history. Nobody has scored more for El Tri.

0505 / 06

| THE SUPER-SUB INSTINCT.

He scored at three World Cups, in 2010, 2014 and 2018. He rarely needed the build-up. Give him one chance in the six-yard box and he buried it. The art of being in the right place.

0606 / 06

| FULL CIRCLE.

After the LA Galaxy he went home to Chivas, the club where it all started. The Little Pea, back where they first fell for him. Some players always come home.
