

— EDITION 01

SIX HOSTS HAVE WON IT AT HOME.

Five days from kickoff, history has a warning for the visitors.

A 6-part breakdown

SWIPE ►►►

0101 / 06

| HOME ADVANTAGE IS REAL.

Twenty-two World Cups have been played.
Six were won by the host nation. *In five days,
three hosts get their chance.*

0202 / 06

| 1930 & 1934.

Uruguay won the very first World Cup in Montevideo. Italy followed four years later in Rome. The tournament began with two straight home wins.

0303 / 06

| 1966.

England's only World Cup. Wembley, extra time, a hat-trick from Geoff Hurst. Sixty years on, it's still the benchmark.

0404 / 06

| 1974 & 1978.

West Germany beat Cruyff's Netherlands in Munich. Four years later Argentina won their first, in Buenos Aires. Two more for the hosts inside one decade.

0505 / 06

| 1998.

Zidane's France. Two headers in the final against Brazil, 3-0 in Paris. The last time a host went all the way — 28 years ago.

0606 / 06

| THE FULL LIST. SAVE IT.

Uruguay 1930. Italy 1934. England 1966. West Germany 1974. Argentina 1978. France 1998.

Six from twenty-two. Now three hosts at once — Mexico, USA, Canada. Does one of them make it seven?

— THE TAKEAWAY

WHO MAKES IT SEVEN?

Drop your pick in the comments and follow @thearchv_ca — your daily football archive.