THE HALL QUESTION — LEWIS HALL

United want a left-back. Newcastle don't want to sell. Where does Lewis Hall go?

A 7-part breakdown

0101 / 07

| THE HALL QUESTION.

Lewis Hall — 21, England, Newcastle's first-choice left-back. And the name United keep coming back to.

0202 / 07

| UNITED'S NEED.

United are hunting a left-back; Hall and Fulham's Antonee Robinson are the two names on the board. (reported: Sky Sports)

0303 / 07

| THE PLAYER'S LEAN.

Hall is understood to be open to Old Trafford,
viewing it as a step up in his development.

0404 / 07

| NEWCASTLE DIG IN.

The Magpies are desperate to keep him — they have already lost Anthony Gordon to Barcelona for around £70m this window.

0505 / 07

| THE PRICE.

Newcastle rate Hall in the region of £50m. A hard season at St James' Park has left them exposed to raids for their best players.

0606 / 07

| THE TWIST.

He only joined from Chelsea in 2024 for about €33m. A move now would be a fast, expensive jump to a giant. Too soon, or exactly right?

0707 / 07

| YOUR CALL.

COMMENT: is Hall the upgrade United need?
SAVE this for when it moves.
