

— LEGENDS · NO. 13

SO GOOD THEY NAMED HIM TWICE.

Jay-Jay Okocha · Nigeria · pure joy.

A 6-part breakdown

SWIPE ►►►

0101 / 06

| JOY AS A PLAYING STYLE.

Okocha played to delight. Step-overs, flicks and outrageous skill, all with a smile, because beating a man was never enough if he could beat him twice. Football as entertainment.

0202 / 06

FROM FRANKFURT TO A WORLD RECORD.

He made his name at Eintracht Frankfurt, then Fenerbahçe, before becoming the most expensive African player ever when PSG paid a record fee. Wanted everywhere.

0303 / 06

| ATLANTA 1996.

He was central to Nigeria's Olympic gold, when the Dream Team beat Argentina and Brazil to stun the world. A golden generation.

0404 / 06

| CAPTAIN OF THE SUPER EAGLES.

Three World Cups and an Africa Cup of Nations, leading Nigeria with flair and a grin.
His country's showman.

0505 / 06

| THE SOUL OF BOLTON.

In the Premier League he made an ordinary team must-watch, scoring goals nobody else would attempt. He carried a side on skill alone.

0606 / 06

| JAY-JAY.

So good they named him twice. *Pure joy,
every touch.*
