PREGAME: SOUTH KOREA V CZECHIA — THE OTHER SIDE OF GROUP A

Son's LAFC-era Korea against Czechia's first World Cup in 20 years.

A 7-part breakdown

0101 / 07

| SOUTH KOREA V CZECHIA.

Group A · Estadio Akron, Guadalajara ·
Thursday June 11 · 10:00 PM ET. The other half of Group A opens the night.

0202 / 07

| THE REAL FIGHT FOR SECOND.

Mexico are the group's heavy favourites. So this is the match that decides who chases them — win it and you control your own destiny. No room to ease in.

0303 / 07

| FIRST-EVER MEETING.

These two have never met at a World Cup.
Three friendlies — one win each and a draw,
last in Prague in 2016 (Korea 2-1). History starts here.

0404 / 07

| KOREA'S TALISMAN.

Son Heung-min, now at LAFC — 56 goals for Korea, two short of the all-time record. Lee Kang-in (PSG) and Hwang Hee-chan (Wolves) beside him, Kim Min-jae (Bayern) behind. A team built around its captain.

0505 / 07

| CZECHIA'S RETURN.

Back at a World Cup for the first time in 20 years. Patrik Schick (Bayer Leverkusen) leads the line — 25 goals in 52 caps, five in qualifying. Two decades of waiting, one shot to take it.

0606 / 07

| THE SET-PIECE WARNING.

Czechia scored more set-piece goals than any team in UEFA qualifying — 11, seven of them from corners. Switch off at a corner and the night turns.
