

— THE LEDGER

FIFA'S $1BN CLUB WORLD CUP HAS A BUILT-IN WEALTH GAP.

Where the billion actually goes.

A 5-part breakdown

SWIPE ►►►

0101 / 05

| THE SPLIT.

$1bn pool. $525m just for showing up. $475m locked behind wins and knockouts. Half guaranteed, half earned.

0202 / 05

| THE CONTINENTAL BIAS.

12 European clubs take ~$306m of the base.
North America, Asia and Africa: a flat
~$9.55m each. Status, priced in.

0303 / 05

| THE MATCH PREMIUM.

$2m a group win, $1m a draw. Reach the Round of 16: +$7.5m. Escaping the group changes your year.

0404 / 05

| THE JACKPOT.

Champion bonus: $40m. An unbeaten European winner can clear $85m+. One trophy, one windfall.

0505 / 05

| THE BALANCE, IN ONE VIEW.

Europe takes ~58% of the base pool. Then the ladder compounds to a $40m lift. Top-heavy by design.

— THE TAKEAWAY

GROWTH OR GATEKEEPING?

Save this for the tournament. Does the $1bn model grow global football, or lock in European dominance? Tell us — follow @thearchv_ca.